

Senior Vice President of Sales and Leasing

Curtis Rorebeck

Curtis Rorebeck joined Equity Inc. as Senior Vice President of Sales & Leasing in 2006. He has been actively involved in commercial real estate in the Tampa Bay area for more than 24 years.

Rorebeck formed The Rorebeck Expansion Group, Inc in 1993 with an emphasis on restaurant/entertainment/retail real estate and has negotiated transactions in Hawaii, California, South Carolina, Indiana and throughout Florida. He has performed site selection services for Omaha Steaks, Tijuana Flats Burrito Co., Fish City Grill, Howl at The Moon Saloon, Hooters, Hospitality USA, TGI Friday's, Cold Stone Creamery, Quizno's Subs, Dan Marino's Town Tavern, Fat Tuesday, Sloppy Joe's, Bonefish Grill, Buffalo Wild Wings and Sherlock's Baker Street Pub & Grill.

In addition, Rorebeck was a consultant to Chicago based ORIX Real Estate Equities and was responsible for the implementation of a revitalization strategy for The Shoppes of Channelside in 2003, involving leases with Splitsville, Stumps Supper Club, Howl at the Moon Saloon, Tina Tapas, Signature Room Grille and Hooters.

Rorebeck is a founding partner of Rorebeck Marini Real Estate Group, Inc. now the Rorebeck Marini Equity Retail Group and is responsible for the brokerage and development activities for the team.

Profile Highlights

- Broad Commercial Real Estate Experience
- Extensive Restaurant and Retail Site Selection
- Graduate of the University of Florida