

Sales Associate

Dan Disbro

Dan Disbro is an associate specializing in tenant representation for Equity in the Tampa market, building relationships with existing accounts and generating new clients through past relationships and personal expertise. Dan will be working with the Rorebeck Marini Equity Retail Group. Dan works closely with Curtis Rorebeck on a number of Tenant Representation Accounts throughout much of the state of Florida

Dan comes from an 18-year career in the hospitality and restaurant business. Starting in the hospitality industry while attending college in Syracuse, New York, Dan combined his accounting and business education with his Culinary Institute of America training to successfully open and operate 14 restaurant concepts starting in New York and traveling as far south as Tampa, FL and Providenciales, B.W.I.

Profile Highlights

- Tenant Representation focus
- Specializes in client development and retention
- Restaurant Expertise