

Executive Vice President

John A. Brooks

As Executive Vice President of Real Estate Services, John A. Brooks provides leadership to Equity's Real Estate division. As a member of Equity's Executive Team, he leads brokerage and property management services. Before being named to the Executive Team, John was a Senior Vice President of Sales and Leasing where he played a vital role in bringing new projects and clients to the firm.

John has been instrumental in providing retail leasing, capital formation, development input, joint ventures and sales of stabilized assets. As a real estate investor and a former real estate agent, John brings a unique perspective to each opportunity that owners appreciate. His skill in finding and creating real estate opportunity for Equity has also allowed John to accumulate significant real estate holdings of his own.

Prior to joining Equity, John spent four years at CB Richard Ellis providing retail tenant representation services for national clients and representing private investors purchasing retail investments. In 2004, he was involved in numerous real estate transactions, winning Equity's Top Producer Award. For his accomplishments in 2004, he also received the Power Broker Award from CoStar Group, Inc., the nation's largest provider of commercial real estate information, and was named a Top 10 Broker in the Columbus market. In 2005, he received the highest level award possible from the Ohio Association of Realtors, the President's Sales Club - Pinnacle of Performance Award.

John is an active member of the International Council of Shopping Centers and has been a featured speaker at the Ohio/West Virginia Conference. In addition, John serves on the Board of Pregnancy Decision Health Center, chairing the Facilities Committee and is on the Board of Directors at his church. John is an active father of four and soccer coach for his children. He is happily married to Elisabeth and resides in Westerville.
